EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Keith M. Baxter on 01/18/2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 30 is now cancelled.

Reasons for Allowance

2. Claims 2-6, 8-13, 15-18, 20-22 and 29 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While Nwana et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,266,805) discloses displaying workflow of a plurality of agents interacting with one another in a whole society using a Society Tool and a Report Tool of a visualizer. The Society Tool allows a user to select a set of agents and view the structural organization relationships and the messaging between them. The Report Tool displays the general behavior of the society as a whole.

And Miyazaki (U.S. Patent No. 6,285,977) discloses a multi-agent cooperating system which is capable of being applied to plurality of users with a simple composition and of performing efficient processing. The system comprises an agent group composed of a plurality of agents for providing services to the user, a user definition storing section for storing personal information such as user preferences for the options when requesting a service, and a user agent for converting the request from the user into an appropriate form with reference to the contents in the user definition storing section and transmitting them to the agent group, or transmitting the value of the attributes of the user with reference to the user definition storing section when user characteristics are requested from the agent group.

The prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention, in conjunction with all the other claimed limitations, a system for allowing a user to interact with a multi-agent distributed control system having all the claimed features of applicant's instant invention, specifically including: the user interface includes a second window, wherein across a top portion of the second window are listed the agents between which messages of the first list were sent, wherein a plurality of arrows representative of the messages between the listed agents connect the respective vertical lines corresponding to the listed agents between which the messages were sent; wherein the amounts of communication are calculated based upon one of sums of numbers of messages and sums of bytes communicated per unit time, wherein the statistical information can be limited to a subset of statistical information corresponding to at least one of an agent subset, a message subset and a time period; wherein the user interface displays information in at least one of a on-line mode of operation and an off-line mode of operation, wherein in the on-line mode of operation the information that is displayed by the user interface concerns operations of the multi-agent system that are presently occurring, wherein in the off-line mode of operation the information that is displayed by the user interface concerns operations of the multi-agent system that have already occurred; wherein the agent-related information displayed on the user interface is at least one of information concerning current operation of the agents and information concerning past operation of the agent, wherein when the agent-related information concerns past operation of the agents, the agent-related information is obtained from a storage device that has recorded the information during the past operation of the agents, etc., as set forth in the claims.

Also, there is no motivation to combine the Nwana et al. reference with the Miyazaki reference to meet these limitations. It is for these reasons that applicant's invention defines over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
